COMMUNITY ENCOURAGED TO SUBMIT IDEAS FOR BARANGAROO Community Plan Submissions

14 September 2010

The Barangaroo Delivery Authority is encouraging Sydneysiders to make a submission on how Barangaroo can contribute to the diversity and vitality of Sydney.

Chairman of the Barangaroo Delivery Authority, Mike Collins said that the Authority was seeking community input into the development of a Community Plan for Barangaroo.

The plan will cover a range of topics:

- Culture
- Key worker/affordable housing
- Education and training
- Retail and supporting uses
- Tourism, employment and small business development
- Recreation and wellbeing
- Community facilities

“At the recent Headland Park Design Open Day, the Premier announced Barangaroo’s Headland Park would contain a space that could be home to a new Sydney cultural facility,” Mr Collins said.

“There are also further opportunities within Barangaroo Central and Barangaroo South for community and social oriented uses, and we want the community to help decide how best to ensure these opportunities assist in creating Barangaroo as a vibrant precinct for Sydney.

“We are keen to hear your ideas for cultural, educational and housing opportunities that are engaging and accessible to a wide range of people, that will ensure Barangaroo is an active and welcoming part of Sydney and provides something unique for Sydney that complements rather than replicates or competes with what already exists,” he said.

Submissions can be made on the following topics:

- Cultural uses at Barangaroo
- Key worker/ affordable housing
- Education and training.

Submissions must be received by Monday 18 October 2010.
