

Media Release

Monday 7 December 2009

BARANGAROO TICKETS BOOKED OUT FOR 2009 SYDNEY NEW YEAR'S EVE

Barangaroo has proven a popular location to watch Sydney's 2009 New Year's Eve fireworks display, with the 10,000 tickets on offer already booked out.

The free tickets for Barangaroo's family friendly viewing area were available from 9am Tuesday 1 December, and by 2pm Saturday 5 December had all been allocated.

The tickets were available through Ticketek for a small booking fee.

WEAR BLUE ON NYE

Ticketholders are reminded to celebrate the theme of this year's celebrations - Awaken the Spirit- by wearing a touch of blue on the night, representing Sydney's stunning blue harbour and blue summer sky.

EVENT INFORMATION

Ticketholders can bring a picnic or purchase food and soft beverages from a range of food stalls on site. As a family friendly venue, no alcohol or glass will be allowed.

Barangaroo encourages all ticket holders to use public transport on New Year's Eve as no parking will be available. Please visit www.131500.com.au

The Barangaroo Delivery Authority has been working closely with the NSW Government, the City of Sydney and NSW Police to prepare plans for New Year's Eve.

ABOUT BARANGAROO

Barangaroo will be a new 22 hectare commercial, residential and leisure precinct on Sydney Harbour, creating a vibrant new western edge for the city. This waterfront development will set global benchmarks in sustainability and urban design.

Barangaroo will help reinforce Sydney's position as a premier hub in the region for global companies. It will attract new businesses, investment, growth and jobs, boosting the State economy and further enhancing the city's financial and knowledge economies.

Media contact: Toni Rankin 0419 255 022