

Appointments to Barangaroo Delivery Authority Board

The Barangaroo Delivery Authority is pleased to announce two recent appointments to its board made by the NSW Premier, Mike Baird.

The two appointees are Peter Young AM and Christine Covington.

Mr Young has had a distinguished 40 year career in finance and construction. He has been a key leader across government, environmental, business and cultural sectors, sitting on the boards of diverse organisations such as the National Rail Corporation, Great Barrier Reef Foundation, Fairfax Media and the Sydney Theatre Company.

Mr Young is a recipient of the Centenary Medal and in 2008 was appointed a Member of the Order of Australia for his services to business and commerce, particularly in the areas of finance and investment, and to cultural and environmental organisations.

Ms Covington has over 28 years' experience in environment, planning and property law and heads the national Environment & Planning Group at Corrs Chambers Westgarth.

She has been a member of the Central Sydney Planning Committee from 2007- 2009 and is presently Chair of affordable housing provider City West Housing Pty Limited, as well as a board member of the NSW Environment Protection Authority.

Premier Mike Baird said: "These two distinguished Sydneysiders will bring their considerable skills and experience to Barangaroo.

"We are reaching an important new phase of Barangaroo with the headland park and the first office tower at Barangaroo South opening next year and Peter and Christine will make a significant contribution to this next stage of Barangaroo."
