

NEWS RELEASE

The Hon. Kristina Keneally MP

Member for Heffron
Minister for Planning
Minister for Infrastructure
Minister for Redfern Waterloo

Wednesday 2 December, 2009

BARANGAROO - THE PLACE TO BE ON NEW YEAR'S EVE

Barangaroo will become Sydney's newest venue for family fun on New Year's Eve, with free tickets now available from Ticketek.

Planning Minister, Kristina Keneally, said up to 10,000 people will enjoy the great, family friendly atmosphere at Barangaroo on New Year's Eve.

"Barangaroo will feature views of Balmain, Goat Island, Balls Head Point and Sydney Harbour Bridge. It will be a fantastic place to see the fireworks," Ms Keneally said.

"Up to 10,000 free tickets are available. They must be booked in advance through Ticketek and this will attract a small booking fee. Up to six tickets can be booked in one transaction.

"Ticket holders can bring a picnic or purchase food and soft beverages from a range of food stalls on site. As a family friendly venue, no alcohol or glass will be allowed.

"During New Year's Eve planning, it was determined that 10,000 people could be comfortably accommodated in the viewing area, while maintaining a family friendly atmosphere."

"I encourage all ticket holders to use public transport to get to Barangaroo on New Year's Eve, as there will be no parking available. Please visit www.131500.com.au for more details."

Barangaroo will be open to ticket holders from 7pm, with the site closing at 1am.

Tickets are available from ticketek outlets, or by visiting www.ticketek.com.au

Media Contact: Catherine McArthur 9228 5811 or 0408 699 820